Event Report

Academic year: 2021-22

Name of the program: Three Day Yoga Practice Sessions

Date(s): 16-06-2022 to 18-06-2022

Venue: BVCITS, Amalapuram

Bonam Venkata Chlamayya Institute of Technology & Science has organised three day workshop on Yoga Practice and Meditation from 16-06-2022 to 18 -06 2022 from 9:30 am to 4:30 pm. We have organized Yoga Practice and Meditation in Four Sessions every day for all the students in these three days.

The Chief Guest Shri G Durga Prasad, Yoga Trainer, inaugurated of Yoga Camp at 9:30 in indoor shuttle court of Our College. Then, he explained about the importance of various Yogic Postures. He explained many Yogic Postures that will help to the students to relieve their fear and stress. He demonstrated several Yogic Postures. All the students performed different Yogic Postures. Dr J V G Ramarao, Principal of the college said, "Yoga is the only solution to Stress and Success." Additionally, yoga promotes a sense of harmony and compassion. It challenges us to see the interdependence of all beings and to broaden our awareness beyond ourselves. We develop a stronger feeling of empathy, tolerance, and understanding for other people via the practise of non-violence, honesty, and other ethical values. Yoga teaches us to revere and respect ourselves, one another, and the world around us.

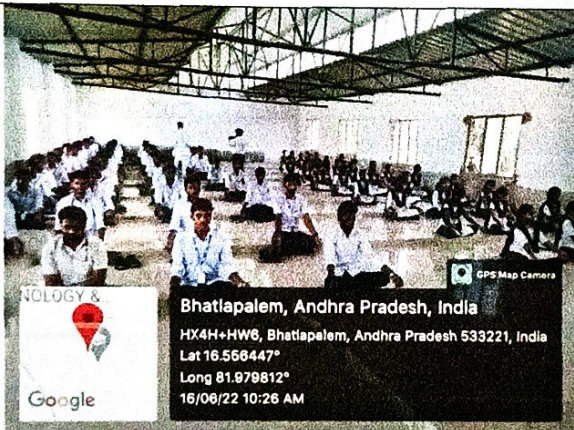

Dr M C S Madan, Vice-Principal quoted that Yoga should be practiced every to become physically and mentally fit. Yoga offers a haven of peace and balance in a world when stress, worry, and the responsibilities of modern living frequently overwhelm us. Yoga offers a route to inner tranquilly and self-realization through a combination of physical postures, breathing techniques, meditation, and moral guidelines.

K.Durga Rao, NSS Programme Officer, HoD's of various departments, Physical Directors and Staff members participated in this programme. About 904 students and 50 staff members participated in this workshop for the three days. And amount of Rs: 6,300/- was spent.
